

Limoneira to Acquire 125 Acres of Agriculture Property

Continues to Execute Strategy to Expand Agribusiness

SANTA PAULA, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- On April 16, 2012, Limoneira Company (NASDAQ:LMNR), a leading agribusiness with prime agricultural land and operations, real estate and water rights in California, completed the purchase of a citrus orchard and is in an agreement that is expect to close in May 2012 to acquire an additional citrus orchard for a combined 125 acres of agriculture property in the San Joaquin Valley of California for a aggregate purchase price of $1.23 million.

The two properties, which are currently planted with Navel oranges, exemplify the high quality citrus land that complements the Company's existing citrus portfolio. With these acquisitions, the Company will own or lease nearly 8,000 acres of agriculture property.

Harold Edwards, President and Chief Executive Officer of Limoneira said, "Following the expansion of our agribusiness with the Sheldon leases in January, we are very pleased with these acquisitions of additional productive agriculture property as further execution of our strategy to grow our agribusiness segment. These properties are located in close proximity to our existing orchards in Porterville, California, which will make for efficient integration into our current operations. "

Alex Teague, Senior Vice President of Limoneira, added, "Expanding our portfolio of quality citrus acreage is an essential part of our long-term growth strategy. We will continue to look for opportunities to make strategic acquisitions that will contribute to our long-term top and bottom line growth."
